

The Cultural Impact of the Great War

Religion, Law, Politics and Science in the Aftermath of World War I

Department of Religion

M03 Dodd Hall
641 University Way
P.O. Box 3061520
Tallahassee, FL 32306-1520

Phone: 850-644-1020
Fax: 850-644-7225
Email: REL-events@fsu.edu

A Symposium

December 9, 2016

9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Williams 013 (The English Department's Common Room)

This one day symposium will feature presentations dealing with the impact of the Great War of 1914-18. Speakers will include:

Nigel Biggar (Regius Professor of Moral Theology, Oxford University)

Cara Burnidge (Assistant Professor of Religion, University of Northern Iowa)

G. Scott Davis (Booker Professor of Ethics, University of Richmond)

Jonathan Ebel (Associate Professor of Religion, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign)

James Turner Johnson (Emeritus Professor, Religious Studies, Rutgers University)

John Kelsay (Distinguished Research Professor, Religion, Florida State University)

Michael Ruse (Lucyle T. Werkmeister Professor, Philosophy, (Florida
State University)

Co-sponsored by the FSU Department of Religion and the FSU Program in the History and Philosophy of Science.

1914-1918

THE GREAT WAR and the Shaping of Our World